++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Some warm sunshine developing on Monday. Dry and clear overnight.

Today:
A dry day, with areas of low cloud and fog affecting coastal districts. The cloud will rapidly lift and break, giving way to a fine day with warm sunshine. Feeling rather humid though, with light winds. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:
A fine and dry evening and night, with light winds and prolonged clear spells allowing mist and fog patches to develop around dawn. Cool in rural areas. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
A fine and largely sunny start to the day. Becoming increasingly cloudy later on but some brighter spells still likely during the afternoon. Remaining dry and warm. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Remaining warm through this period. Cloudier than previous days, especially in the west, but some good amounts of sunshine in the afternoon, particularly in the east. Perhaps the odd shower.
